

My Only Dream by Campbell 12

In the dark I know you,
Will I ever feel you?
Day by day I see,
That you're my only dream.

I would never ask for more,
Than you could give me.
You'll always be my one,
And only destiny.

And your love...
I know it's right for me.
And your love...
Is where I want to be.
And your love...
Is all I'll ever need.
Your love is my dream.

My love is for you,
So let me adore you.
I will always see,
What you have done for me.

Never-ever leave me,
I will try to please you.
Always let me in,
It's my eternal dream.

And your love...
I know it's right for me.
And your love...
Is where I want to be.
And your love...
Is all I'll ever need.
Your love is my dream.

And your love...
I know it's right for me.

And your love...
Is where I want to be.
And your love...
Is all I'll ever need.
Your love is my dream.
Your love is my dream.
