

What Would You Do by Campbell 12

If you could not speak,
What would you do?
How would they treat you?

If you could not move,
What would you do?
And how would you get through?

If you could not think,
What would you do?
And who would be there for you?

You don't want to know,
What others go through.
You don't want to see,
Their pain and misery.
You don't want to feel,
The suffering is real.
You don't want to know,
And with this, you will never grow.

If you could not see,
What would you do?
How would they treat you?

If you could not hear,
What would you do?
And how would you get through?

If you could not breathe,
What would you do?
And who would be there for you?

You don't want to know,
What others go through.
You don't want to see,
Their pain and misery.
You don't want to feel,

The suffering is real.
You don't want to know,
And with this, you will never grow.

Do you want to know,
What others go through?
Do you want to see,
Their pain and misery?
Do you want to feel,
The suffering is real?
Do you want to know?
And with this, you will always grow.
And with this, you will always grow.
